Get your facts right!

Want better tools to sort fact from fiction? Here are some tips for fact-finding, evaluating resources and becoming more knowledgeable about information online.

Who?

Who wrote the article and who published it? Look at the 'About' page and search online and see what you can find out about them.

When?

When was the last update posted? Use the most up-to-date version that you can find.

Where?

Can you find the same information from another, unrelated source?

Why?

Does the article push a particular point of view? You need the whole story
